

National Care Homes Research and Development Forum

Agenda September 10th 2004 Annual BSG Conference London

Introductions

Review of previous meetings

- Methodological issues
- Issues of sustainability
- Personal experience of being a researcher in this setting
- Ethical issues of researching in care homes
- Workforce development issues
- Funding issues
- Research governance

Future activities

- Identifying and sharing information about relevant sources of research funding
- Agreeing an ethical code of practice
- Providing support for post-graduate students
- Helping to shape and influence the national agenda on research and development in care homes
 - Book proposal

International

- Identifying international resources, for example Ageing Research on-line in Australia, the Gerontological Society in America long term care section, SHARE in Scotland
- Arranging future joint workshops at international conferences
- Arranging joint conferences e.g. Anglo-German conference Ingrid Evers offered to lead on this
- Reporting back from international conferences about relevant work to network members

Profile of network

Focus of group

Date and Venue for next Network meeting

Friday January 28th 2005

Hosted by the Royal Bank of Scotland Centre for Older Person's Agenda., Edinburgh

Site host: Belinda Dewar bdewar@qmuc.ac.uk

Agenda: Overview of the work of the Centre for Older Person's Agenda